Website: <https://www.washburn.edu/statements-disclosures/clery-act.html>

Washburn University is committed to maintaining a safe and secure learning environment for the campus community. In 1998, the federal government passed the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, formerly the Student Right to Know Act of 1990. (Clery Act) This law requires colleges and universities receiving federal funding to disclose the reported instances of certain categories of criminal activity on their campuses. As part of our ongoing commitment to public safety Washburn University maintains compliance with the Clery Act.

The Washburn University's annual security report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by Washburn, and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from, the campus. Other reports include institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies concerning alcohol and other drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other matters. A copy of the report can be obtained by contacting the Office of Student Life (Morgan Hall, (785) 670-2100) or by accessing the Annual Campus Security and Fire Report on the following website: www.washburn.edu/securityreport (<https://www.washburn.edu/student-life/health-safety/police/required-reporting/annual-campus-security-and-fire-report.pdf>).
