

FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTHCARE: PHLEBOTOMY

The Foundations of Healthcare: Phlebotomy program is designed for high school students who want to enter the field of phlebotomy or other healthcare fields. Students must be 17 years of age and must pass a national exam upon completion of the program to be eligible for certification. This program will offer students preparation to test for the industry-recognized credentials listed below.

Program Information

- Program Start (semesters): August; January
- Financial Aid available (for post-secondary students only): No
- Veteran Benefits Eligible (for post-secondary students only): No
- Industry-recognized credentials: American Medical Technologies
Phlebotomy Technician; First Aid & CPR

Certificate Requirements

Code	Title	Hours
HCT 105	First Aid & CPR	1
HCT 108	Health Occupations I	4
HCT 126	Medical Terminology	3
HCT 160	Fundamentals of Phlebotomy	2
HCT 164	Phlebotomy Lab	2
HCT 166	Phlebotomy Clinical Practicum	2
Total Hours		14